Dweezil Zappa Current Band

Among those, Napoleon Murphy Brock (sax, flute, and vocals) was an integral part of the band, while drummer/vocalist Terry Bozzio and guitarist Steve Vai performed as guests in parts of the shows. The current band lineup is Dweezil's favorite so far: "This is the best version of the band I have ever had... The musicians are able to tackle the hardest instrumental passages and cover a limitless range of vocals. Dweezil stepped using the name Zappa Plays Zappa and now continues to make music and tour under his own name..." Apart from Dweezil Zappa on lead guitar, many of the band members previously played with Frank Zappa.
